Summary

Main Entry: Anthony, Alfred Wiliams (1860-1939)
Title: Collection, 1679-1944
Size: 19 linear feet, (48 boxes)
Source: Gift of Alfred Williams Anthony, 1940

Abstract: Alfred Anthony Williams (1860-), theologian, author and educator, was an executive and administrator of the Committee of the Federal Council of Christ, founder of the Federation Committee of Good Will between Jews and Christians, and treasurer of the General Conference of Free Baptists.

Collection consists mainly of 18th-20th century autographs, with the bulk from the mid-19th to 20th centuries, representing both primary and secondary figures from diverse fields including literature, music, education, politics, and royalty. Names include Susan B. Anthony, John Bigelow, Edwin Booth, Frederick Douglass, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, H.L. Mencken, Franklin Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Margaret Sanger, Philip Schuyler, and Daniel Webster. Figures represented are mainly Americans. Many letters are to Anthony. Following the name file is a subject file consisting of miscellaneous autograph letters arranged by profession or institution. Also, two boxes of unsorted material, including photographs usually relating to individuals whose autographs are contained in the collection; and autograph fan; and a glass plate negative.

Special formats: Autograph fan; glass plate negative

Arrangement Note

The collection is arranged in three series. Series 1: Prominent Correspondents, c1600-1930; Series 2: Subjects, c1800-1930; Series III. Miscellaneous and Unsorted Material.

Series Descriptions

SERIES I. PROMINENT CORRESPONDENTS, C1600-1930 (BULK DATES 1800-1930) BOXES 1-33

This series is arranged alphabetically by the surname. The letters and documents are filed chronologically under the individual name. The manuscripts are primarily 19th – 20th centuries autographs of individuals from diverse professions, representative of primary and secondary figures. Prominent individuals represented include Susan B. Anthony, John Bigelow, Edwin Booth, Frederick Douglass, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, H.L. Menken, Franklin Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Margaret Sanger, Philip Schuyler, and Daniel Webster. Occasionally, there are poems, photographs and holograph manuscripts of poetry.

SERIES II. SUBJECTS, C1800-1930 BOXES 33-48

This series is arranged alphabetically by subject. Some of the subjects have a secondary arrangement, for example, New York City (by name of church). Representative subjects include actors, businessmen, churches and institutions, genealogists and miscellaneous organizations.

SERIES III. MISCELLANEOUS AND UNSORTED MATERIAL BOXES 43-48

The remaining material includes two boxes of miscellaneous and unsorted material, photographs and prints.
