Description

John Durand (c.1823-1908) was born in New Jersey, the son of Lucy Baldwin, the first wife of Asher B. Durand the well known engraver and painter. Durand spent a good many years living abroad in France, and alternating with the States. He ^{and William J. Stillman} was editor and publisher of "The Crayon", a periodical devoted to the graphic arts (1855-60) and author of the biography "The Life and Times of Asher B. Durand" (1894).

Durand was

John Durand Papers consist of Correspondence, 1853-93, bulk dates 1854-59, alphabetically arranged. The majority of letters are incoming to Durand. The main topic concerns "The Crayon", e.g. subscription from customers, and solicitations from individuals for insertions in the magazine. There are bulk letters to/from (1878-1907) Charles Henry Hart a close friend and artist. Many of Durand's early letters to C.H.H. are from Europe, especially Paris covering topics such as his visit to Versailles, to see Franklin's portrait. Letters dated 1897, Sept. 11; 1899, July 20, Feb. 5; April 30; June 7; Aug. 31; and Nov. 7 concern John Durand giving over his father's papers to Charles Henry Hart. Letter d. ~~1905, July 19~~ concerns Durand's sister and her children, who he states were subjecting him to a sort of "boycott" because he compelled his brother to pay in full the legacy left to him by his sister. The remainder of the Durand papers are bills for collection re "The Crayon"; Writings: extract from John Durand's diary and writings re "The Crayon". Crayon subscription list and a printed vol. A Companion to the Heart of the Andes by Theodore Winthrop (1859)
