Description

David Bennett Hill was an American lawyer & politician. Born in Havana, New York on August 29, 1843. He was admitted to the bar in 1864 and was at one time Mayor of Elmira, New York. He was elected Lt. Governor in 1882. He took over the governorship of New York on the election of Grover Cleveland to the presidency of the U.S.. In 1885 he was elected Governor and was re-elected in 1888. He was also president of the N.Y. State Bar Assn.(1886-87). He was U.S. senator (1891-1897). He ran again for Governor of New York in 1894 but was defeated. He died in Albany, New York on Oct. 20, 1910.

The collection consists of his correspondence with prominent citizens of New York and fellow politicians(1886-1910). Included in his correspondence are letters from John Bigelow, Hamilton Fish, C.A. Dana, George Peabody and George McClellan. Also included are his legal papers such as briefs, affidavits and legal opinions(c.1901-07). Present are many of his writings & speeches (1892-1904). All of his legal papers, drafts of speeches and writings are in holograph form. His gubernatorial papers which included campaign material and executive orders are also present (1886-87). There are a few of his papers as a U.S. senator. There are also photographs including portraits of Hill.
