Guide to the

John T. Hoffman correspondence
1868-1883
MssCol 1412

Compiled by Manuscripts & Archives Division, September 2012

Summary

Creator: Hoffman, John T. (John Thompson), 1828-1888

Title: John T. Hoffman correspondence, 1868-1883

Size: .1 linear foot (1 folder)

Source: Unknown

Abstract: John Thompson Hoffman (1828-1888), lawyer and politician, was mayor of New York City from 1866 to 1868, and governor of New York State from 1869 to 1872. His papers consist of letters he received regarding New York State and national politics, patronage and Tammany Hall. Includes letters from Samuel Sullivan Cox and Peter Barr Sweeney.

Access: Apply to Manuscripts and Archives Division for access at http://www.nypl.org/mssref.

Preferred citation: John T. Hoffman correspondence, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key terms
Subjects
Governors -- New York (State)
Patronage, Political -- New York (State)

Names
Cox, Samuel Sullivan, 1824-1889
Hoffman, John T. (John Thompson), 1828-1888
Sweeney, Peter Barr.

Occupations
Governors
Politicians

Places
New York (N.Y.) -- Politics and government -- To 1898
New York (State) -- Politics and government -- 1865-1950
United States -- Politics and government -- 1865-1900