Compiled by Melanie A. Yolles, March 1987

Summary

Creator: Bryant, William Cullen, 1794-1878

Title: Bryant-Godwin papers, 1804-1913 (bulk 1820-1898)

Size: 10.61 linear feet (25 boxes, 2 volumes)

Source: Received from heirs of Conrad Godwin Goddard, Minna Godwin Goddard, and additional gifts and purchases.

Abstract: The Bryant-Godwin papers contain William Cullen Bryant's letters, 1814-1878; Parke Godwin's letters, 1840-1898; and an extensive collection of letters written to Bryant and Godwin from family members, friends, colleagues, and prominent persons in the fields of literature, the arts, science, politics, philanthropy, and religion during the 19th century. Included are both personal letters and letters written to Bryant and Godwin in their capacity as editors and writers for the New York Evening Post.

Access: Apply to Manuscripts and Archives Division for access at <http://www.nypl.org/mssref>.

Preferred citation: Bryant-Godwin papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Custodial history: The Bryant-Godwin Papers are a consolidation of three previously separate collections: the Bryant-Godwin collection, the Goddard-Roslyn collection, and Bryant personal miscellaneous papers.

Creator history

William Cullen Bryant (1794-1878) was a major American poet and editor of the New York Evening Post from 1829 to 1878. Bryant helped found the Republican Party and was instrumental in the creation of Central Park in New York City. Parke Godwin (1816-1904), Bryant's son-in-law, was a lawyer and associate of Bryant in the publishing field.

Scope and content note

The collection contains William Cullen Bryant's letters, 1814-1878; Parke Godwin's letters, 1840-1898; and an extensive collection of letters written to Bryant and Godwin from family members, friends, colleagues, and prominent persons in the fields of literature, the arts, science, politics, philanthropy, and religion during the 19th century. Included are both personal letters and letters written to Bryant and Godwin in their capacity as editors and writers for the New York Evening Post. Also present are a significant number of letters written to their wives and daughters. Correspondents include Charles Francis Adams, George Bancroft, John Bigelow, Edwin Booth, Salmon P. Chase, Lydia Maria Child, George W. Curtis, Charles A. and Richard A. Dana, James T. Fields, Henry James, Sr., Henry W. Longfellow, and Robert Cassie Waterston. Collection contains manuscript drafts, and notes for addresses, essays, poetry, and dramatic works by Bryant and Godwin. Bryant's personal papers include notebooks and account books from his early studies and legal practice, 1818-1825; travel diaries, passports, and travel expense books, 1835-1866; personal financial and legal records, 1809-1874; financial and legal records regarding the Evening Post, 1836-1861; and various notebooks relating to agriculture and gardening; 1866 diary kept by Fanny Bryant; and household notes and recipes. Photographs include portraits of Bryant and his daughter Fanny Bryant Godwin. The Godwin family photograph album contains cartes-de-visite of prominent family friends such as Samuel J. Tilden, Henry James, Sr., Bayard Taylor, Henry Tuckerman, and Charles Sumner. Also, books and printed material relating to Bryant, Godwin and the New York Evening Post including programs from memorial tributes to Bryant; scrapbooks and news clippings of Bryant's editorials, 1838-1878; reviews of his translation of the Iliad; and articles by Bryant and others.
