Description

Frances Nathan (1927 -) is a New York City resident who is active in public affairs, especially women's issues. In the 1970s she served as executive director of New York State NARAL (NYS-NARAL) which is the local affiliate of the National Abortion Rights Action League, and during the International Women's Year (IWY) in 1977 she was a delegate to both the New York State Women's Meeting in Albany and the National Women's Conference in Houston, Texas.

The collection consists primarily of printed materials and is divided about equally among NYS-NARAL, IWY, and abortion reference files. For NYS-NARAL there are newsletters (1974-1980), records relating to lobbying activities, speeches and testimony, printed ephemera, and a few letters. The IWY material contains programs, clippings, draft resolutions, and ephemera from the Albany and Houston meetings. The abortion reference files have reports, clippings, leaflets, newsletters, and printed ephemera from NARAL and other organizations.
