HENRY ALBERT PHILLIPS. PAPERS

Henry Albert Phillips (1880-1951) author, editor and lecturer, born in Brooklyn, New York to Henry Albert and Addie A. (Stanhope) Phillips. He was associate editor between 1909-1910 to the Metropolitan Magazine and the Motion Picture Magazine. Phillips lectured at the Brooklyn Academy of Arts and the Young Mens' Christian Association, 1916-18. He also travelled extensively abroad to Europe and the Far East, Japan, China Manchuria and Korea to write about for articles and books. Phillips also studied economic/social conditions in the Caribbean, Mexico and South America. Between 1928-33 he wrote "Travelling With the News" as feature writer for the New York Herald Tribune. During World War II, Phillips covered Italy, eastern Europe e.g. Yugoslavia, Rumania, Bukowina and Hungary.

Phillips literary contributions include: The Photodrama (1914). Other Peoples' Lives (novel 1924), Meet the Japanese (1932), Brazil-Bulwark of the Inter-American Relations (1945). He died Jan. 28, 1951 and is buried at East Moriches, Long Island NY. Phillips married Margaret W. Shepard and has one son Robert Henry Shepard Phillips.

The collection consists of Correspondence 1897-1945;n.d. both incoming and outgoing mainly to Phillips and the majority of correspondants are literary figures e.g. writers, poets and individuals involved with theatres and movies. Many concern publications of their manuscripts with Phillips as associate editor of magazines e.g. Metropolitan Magazine. A few regard

Phillips attempts to have his manuscripts accepted by magazines and theatres. Among his correspondants are Walter Lynwood Fleming, S.W. Ferguson, Emmett C. King, Harris Merton Lyon, Helen Varick Boswell, Richardon Wright, George Ethelbert Walsh, Edward Mott Wooley and Howard F. Randolph. The remaining part of the collection are Writings: Poems, a few by writers and Photographs of Maibelle H. Justice, Katherine Kavanaugh and Joseph Franklin Poland.
