INTRODUCTION

The Richard Rohman Collection was donated to the Billy Rose Theatre Collection, The New York Public Library, April 1989, by Mrs. Richard Rohman. A donation in December 1988 was combined with this gift to form the complete collection. Two scripts were added in 1991. The material arrived in good condition and has been arranged in one series.

BIOGRAPHY

Richard Rohman was born in 1900. He was a newspaper man and press agent turned playwright.

His plays include CITY CALLED HEAVEN, MADAM FOLLY, POWER OF THE PRESS and TELL MY STORY, MLE LOVE and I WANT HIM.

Mr. Rohman helped produce the original production of PINS AND NEEDLES in 1937. Mr. Rohman died in 1984.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Richard Rohman Collection contains clippings, correspondence, programmes, scripts and other material. It measures 5 linear inches and is stored in one box.

The collection is arranged alphabetically in one series:
