Hawthorne, Nathaniel, 1804-1864 (Author)

"The first chapter [A Scene from the Dolliver Romance] was published in the "Atlantic" as an isolated portion, soon after his death; and subsequently the second chapter, which he had been unable to revise, appeared in the same periodical [Another Scene from the Dolliver Romance]. Between this and the third fragment there is a gap, for bridging which no material was found among his papers; but, after hesitating for several years, Mrs. Hawthorne copied and placed in the publishers' hands that final portion, which, with the two parts previously printed, constitutes the whole of what Hawthorne had put into tangible form."

Letter dated "Thursday night May 23(?)" and postmarked "Lenox / May 24 / Mass" with note giving "May 23 1849".

Letter probably written on evening ("nearly teno cl'k" [sic]) before postmark date, i.e. May 23, which was a Wednesday in 1849 and a Thursday in 1850.

A date of 1850 tallies with the contents: they have just spent 5 weeks staying with mother and sister, and SAPH recounts arrival at Highwood, Lenox (where they took up residence in May 1850).
