Creator: Synge, J. M. (John Millington), 1871-1909

Title: John Millington Synge letters and postcard

Date: 1907

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Purchased from Glenn Horowitz Bookseller, 2018

Abstract: John Millington Synge was an Irish playwright, poet, and essayist. The collection comprises two autograph letters and one autograph postcard, all signed J. M. Synge: an autograph letter signed (one page) to his publisher [Joseph M.] Hone, 1907 March 11, sending the remaining copy and proof of an unidentified work, and advising Hone that he is feeling better; an autograph letter signed (two pages) at Glendalough House, Kingstown, Dublin to [Sir Hugh] Lane, 1907 December 29, asking for details regarding the opening of Lane's new art gallery, a reference to Dublin's Municipal Gallery of Modern Art; and an autograph postcard signed, at Glendalough House, Kingstown, Dublin, to A. Francis Steuart at Edinburgh, Scotland, 1907 November 21, sending his regrets that he will not be traveling to Edinburgh "with the others," referring to an upcoming Abbey Theatre tour
