

The New York Public Library
Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle

Guide to the

John Black manuscript material

1825

Pforz MS

Summary

Creator: Black, John, 1783-1855

Title: John Black manuscript material

Date: 1825

Size: 1 item

Abstract: John Black, British journalist and newspaper editor. For twenty-six years, Black was the editor of the London newspaper The Morning Chronicle. He is perhaps best remembered as having been the first employer of a young Charles Dickens, who later described Black as his "first hearty out-and-out appreciator.". To an unnamed reporter : 1 autograph note signed : 1825 (MISC 0369), regarding coverage of a coronation for the Morning Chronicle.

Preferred citation: John Black manuscript material : 1 item, Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Creator History

John Black, British journalist and newspaper editor. For twenty-six years, Black was the editor of the London newspaper The Morning Chronicle. He is perhaps best remembered as having been the first employer of a young Charles Dickens, who later described Black as his "first hearty out-and-out appreciator.".

Scope and Content Note

To an unnamed reporter : 1 autograph note signed : 1825 (MISC 0369), regarding coverage of a coronation for the Morning Chronicle.

Key Terms

Titles

Black, John : manuscript material
Morning chronicle (London, England)

Subjects

Journalists -- Great Britain -- 19th century -- Correspondence

Names

Black, John, 1783-1855