

The New York Public Library
Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle

Guide to the

Catherine Marryat manuscript material

1821

Pforz MS

Summary

Creator: Marryat, Catherine, 1791?-1883

Title: Catherine Marryat manuscript material

Date: 1821

Size: 1 item

Abstract: Catherine Marryat, wife of the British naval officer and writer Frederick Marryat. They married in 1819 and had four sons and seven daughters before separating in 1843. To Messrs. France and Banting, cabinet-makers and upholsterers : 1 autograph letter third person : 20 Apr 1821 : (MISC 3214) : from Russel Place : saying "that Capt. Marryat's House at Wimbledon has always been intended for Sale, but if a respectable family without many young children should wish to hire it for a few years or less, the price is 400 guineas ...".

Preferred citation: Catherine Marryat manuscript material : 1 item, Carl H. Pforzheimer Collection of Shelley and His Circle, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Catherine Marryat, wife of the British naval officer and writer Frederick Marryat. They married in 1819 and had four sons and seven daughters before separating in 1843.

Scope and Content Note

To Messrs. France and Banting, cabinet-makers and upholsterers : 1 autograph letter third person : 20 Apr 1821 : (MISC 3214) : from Russel Place : saying "that Capt. Marryat's House at Wimbledon has always been intended for Sale, but if a respectable family without many young children should wish to hire it for a few years or less, the price is 400 guineas ...".

Key Terms

Subjects

Authors' spouses -- Great Britain -- 19th century -- Correspondence
Navy spouses -- Great Britain -- 19th century -- Correspondence

Titles

Marryat, Catherine : manuscript material

Names

Marryat, Catherine, 1791?-1883
Marryat, Frederick, 1792-1848
France and Banting, cabinet-makers and upholsterers