Summary

Creator: Stockdale, John Joseph, 1770-1847

Title: Manuscript copy of the "Percy Bysshe Shelley" column that ran in the "Stockdale's Budget" periodical, numbers I-IX, 13 December 1826-7 February 1827

Size: 52 pages (single sheets)

Abstract: Copy, in an unidentified later nineteenth century [1860's?] hand, from the highly scarce "Stockdale's Budget" periodical, of the column on Percy Bysshe Shelley that ran from numbers I-IX, between 13 December 1826 and 7 February 1827. Uses Shelley correspondence in Stockdale's possession to tell the story of the dealings between the poet and publisher in 1810. The magazine had passed out of knowledge until June 1860 when Richard Garnett revealed its existence at the British Library (see T. J. Wise's Shelley Library, page 111).
