

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Fitch family papers

1792-1818

MssCol 1015

Summary

Creator: Fitch family

Title: Fitch family papers

Date: 1792-1818

Size: .3 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Purchase, American Autograph Shop, 1934

Abstract: The Fitch family of Otsego County, New York, was a branch of the Fitch family of Connecticut who traced their ancestry to England. Collection consists of deeds and transactions of original settlements along the Hudson River and in Cooperstown, Otsego County. Papers of Stephen Fitch and his descendants include deeds together with inventory and other records relating to Fitch's estate.

Preferred citation: Fitch family papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

The Fitch family of Otsego County, New York, was a branch of the Fitch family of Connecticut who traced their ancestry to England.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of deeds and transactions of original settlements along the Hudson River and in Cooperstown, Otsego County. Papers of Stephen Fitch and his descendants include deeds together with inventory and other records relating to Fitch's estate.

Key Terms

Subjects

Land grants -- New York (State) -- Otsego County

Land settlement -- New York (State) -- Otsego County

Geographic Names

New York (State) -- History -- 1775-1865

Names

Fitch family

Cooper, William, 1754-1809

Fitch, Buckingham

Fitch, Stephen, d. 1829