

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Joseph O. Hasbrouck papers

1834-1863

MssCol 1345

Summary

Creator: Hasbrouck, Joseph O

Title: Joseph O. Hasbrouck papers

Date: 1834-1863

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Purchase, Levy, 1941

Abstract: Joseph O. Hasbrouck was a postmaster and merchant of Tuthill in Ulster County, New York. Collection consists of papers relating to political, legal, financial, and personal matters. Includes a letter, 1847, from an American soldier on board a United States warship anchored near the mouth of the Rio Grande River during the War with Mexico with information about the progress of the war.

Preferred citation: Joseph O. Hasbrouck papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Joseph O. Hasbrouck was a postmaster and merchant of Tuthill in Ulster County, New York.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of papers relating to political, legal, financial, and personal matters. Includes a letter, 1847, from an American soldier on board a United States warship anchored near the mouth of the Rio Grande River during the War with Mexico with information about the progress of the war.

Key Terms

Occupations

Merchants

Subjects

Mexican War, 1846-1848 -- Personal narratives

Postal service -- New York (State) -- Postmasters

Real property -- New York (State)

Geographic Names

New York (State) -- Politics and government -- 1775-1865

Names

Hasbrouck, Joseph O