

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

John Tyler letters and documents

1818-1861

MssCol 17907

Summary

Creator: Tyler, John, 1790-1862

Title: John Tyler letters and documents

Date: 1818-1861

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Abstract: John Tyler was the tenth president of the United States, succeeding to the office on the death of William Henry Harrison. Tyler served as a state legislator, governor, U.S. representative, and U.S. senator before being elected Vice President in 1840. The collection consists of letters from Tyler to various individuals concerning minor official and social matters. Some letters are accompanied by typed transcriptions. Also included are Tyler's responses to autograph requests, invitations to various events, and a signed certificate naming John P. Brown to the post of Dragoman of the Sublime Port in 1842

Physical Location: MssCol 17907

Preferred citation: John Tyler letters and documents, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Custodial History

Some material in the collection was originally received with the Ford and Lenox collections.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Certificates

Occupations

Presidents

Subjects

Presidents -- United States
Vice-Presidents -- United States

Names

Tyler, John, 1790-1862
Tyler, John, 1790-1862
Ford collection