

The New York Public Library Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Luis Muñoz Marín papers

1926-1928

MssCol 2084

Summary

Creator: Mun_oz Mari_n, Luis, 1898-1980

Title: Luis Muñoz Marín papers

Date: 1926-1928

Size: .3 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Gift (came with papers of Constance Lindsay Skinner), 1939

Abstract: Collection consists of correspondence, memoranda, reports, essays, financial records, and printed matter. Bulk of the collection is Muñoz Marín's correspondence, while in New York, with business leaders, politicians and newspapers concerning his mission. Other materials, including two essays he wrote, concern his efforts in New York City.

Preferred citation: Luis Muñoz Marín papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Language of the Material: Some correspondence in Spanish

Creator History

Luis Muñoz Marín (1898-1980) was a Puerto Rican writer and political leader. He was the first elected governor of Puerto Rico and was in office from 1949 to 1965. In 1927 he served as representative to the U.S. of the Economic Commission of the Legislature of Puerto Rico and visited New York to persuade American businessmen to invest in his country's economic development.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of correspondence, memoranda, reports, essays, financial records, and printed matter. Bulk of the collection is Muñoz Marín's correspondence, while in New York, with business leaders, politicians and newspapers concerning his mission. Other materials, including two essays he wrote, concern his efforts in New York City.

Key Terms

Subjects

Economic development
Industries -- Puerto Rico

Occupations

Politicians

Geographic Names

Puerto Rico -- Economic policy

Names

Mun_oz Mari_n, Luis, 1898-1980
Lee, Muna, 1895-1965