

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Samuel L. Holmes and Huldah Bouton correspondence

1821

MssCol 4052

Summary

Creator: Holmes, Samuel L., 1788-1853

Title: Samuel L. Holmes and Huldah Bouton correspondence

Date: 1821

Size: 37 items (1 folder)

Source: Gift of, Agnes B. Holmes, 1948

Abstract: Samuel L. Holmes (1788-1853) of Bedford and Brooklyn, New York was an educator, New York State Assemblyman and, at the time of his death, Superintendent of Public Schools in Brooklyn. Holmes and Huldah Bouton (1800-1874) were teachers in Bedford during their courtship. Correspondence between Samuel L. Holmes and Huldah Bouton, 7 Feb.-17 July 1821, documenting the span of their courtship in Bedford, Westchester County, New York until a few days prior to their marriage.

Alternative Form Available: Available on microfilm; New York Public Library; *ZL-4

Preferred citation: Samuel L. Holmes and Huldah Bouton correspondence, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Related Materials:

Related materials include the Philip W. Holmes Diary, 1861; Manuscripts and Archives Division; New York Public Library

Creator History

Samuel L. Holmes (1788-1853) of Bedford and Brooklyn, New York was an educator, New York State Assemblyman and, at the time of his death, Superintendent of Public Schools in Brooklyn. Holmes and Huldah Bouton (1800-1874) were teachers in Bedford during their courtship.

Scope and Content Note

Correspondence between Samuel L. Holmes and Huldah Bouton, 7 Feb.-17 July 1821, documenting the span of their courtship in Bedford, Westchester County, New York until a few days prior to their marriage.

Arrangement: In chronological order

Key Terms

Subjects

Courtship -- New York (State) -- Bedford

Occupations

Educators

Teachers

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Love letters

Names

Holmes, Samuel L., 1788-1853

Bouton, Huldah, 1800-1874