

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

Israel Putnam papers

1775-1777

MssCol 4588

Compiled by Kit Messick, 2014

Summary

Creator: Putnam, Israel, 1718-1790

Title: Israel Putnam papers

Date: 1775-1777

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Source: Gift of John Pierpont Morgan, 1899.

Abstract: Israel Putnam was a General in the Continental Army noted for his strategic efforts and leadership at the Battle of Bunker Hill. The papers consist mainly of receipts and inventories, including bills for goods and sundries such as wine, household items, and expenses at Fraunces Tavern, and a memorandum of "goods to be sent down to the camps" in August, 1775. Also present is a letter sent from Crosswicks, New Jersey, on January 11, 1777, noting current conditions, activities of Tory troops, and General Washington's planned activities shortly after the battles of Trenton and Princeton.

Preferred citation: Israel Putnam papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Processing note: Compiled by Kit Messick, 2014

Custodial History

Material was originally received as part of the Ford collection.

Scope and Content Note

Israel Putnam was a General in the Continental Army noted for his strategic efforts and leadership at the Battle of Bunker Hill. The papers consist mainly of receipts and inventories, including bills for goods and sundries such as wine, household items, and expenses at Fraunces Tavern, and a memorandum of "goods to be sent down to the camps" in August, 1775. Also present is a letter sent from Crosswicks, New Jersey, on January 11, 1777, noting current conditions, activities of Tory troops, and General

Washington's planned activities shortly after the battles of Trenton and Princeton.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Receipts (financial records)

Geographic Names

United States -- History -- Revolution, 1775-1783 -- Equipment and supplies

Names

Washington, George, 1732-1799

United States. Continental Army