

The New York Public Library
Manuscripts and Archives Division

Guide to the

George N. Caylor papers

ca. 1930s-1960

MssCol 499

Summary

Creator: Caylor, George Nathan, 1885-1973

Title: George N. Caylor papers

Date: ca. 1930s-1960

Size: .5 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Gift, Caylor, George N, 1960

Abstract: George N. Caylor (1885-1973), a wholesale merchant and furniture maker, was active in the Socialist Party in Philadelphia and New York in the early 1900s. He was a member of the board of directors of the Rand School and served as an arbitrator on the New York State Board of Mediation. Collection consists of typescripts of Caylor's writings about his life, his associates and the period in which he lived. Writings include his unpublished autobiography, If My Memory Serves Me Right; five sketches of American socialists; and memoirs about his brother Joseph E. Cohen and Frances Perkins.

Preferred citation: George N. Caylor papers, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

George N. Caylor (1885-1973), a wholesale merchant and furniture maker, was active in the Socialist Party in Philadelphia and New York in the early 1900s. He was a member of the board of directors of the Rand School and served as an arbitrator on the New York State Board of Mediation.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of typescripts of Caylor's writings about his life, his associates and the period in which he lived. Writings include his unpublished autobiography, If My Memory Serves Me Right; five sketches of American socialists; and memoirs about his brother Joseph E. Cohen and Frances Perkins.

Key Terms

Subjects

Socialism -- United States

Occupations

Socialists

Geographic Names

United States -- Politics and government -- 1933-1953

Names

Caylor, George Nathan, 1885-1973

Cohen, Joseph E

Debs, Eugene V. (Eugene Victor), 1855-1926

Long, Fred, 1947-

Minassin, Phillip

Perkins, Frances, 1880-1965

Spargo, John, 1876-1966

Wells, Bettina Borman

Wells, Herbert