Summary

Creator: Finley, John H. (John Huston), 1863-1940

Title: John H. Finley miscellany

Date: 1913-1937

Size: .1 linear feet (1 folder)

Abstract: The miscellany chiefly contains letters to and from American editor, educator, author, and civic leader John Huston Finley. Outgoing letters stem mainly from Finley's term as editor-in-chief of the New York Times, though the tone of the correspondence is chiefly social, often relating to books or writings sent or received by Finley. Also included are autographs, clippings, and a certificate of honor from the Leonardo da Vinci Art School
