

The New York Public Library
Music Division

Guide to the

Musical scores relating to dramatic works by Dailey Paskman

1945-195-

JPB 91-141

Summary

Creator: Paskman, Dailey

Title: Musical scores relating to dramatic works by Dailey Paskman

Date: 1945-195-

Size: .3 cu. ft.

Source: Purchase, Apfelbaum, Charles

Abstract: Dailey Paskman was a playwright and lyricist of the forties, associated with Rudolf Friml. Vocal score for Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, written for a children's phonograph record; full score, 3 vocal scores and other material for Halloween, a radio production for children. All the music is by Lionel Barrymore. The collection also includes 2 glossy portrait photographs of Barrymore. Scores are cataloged separately in the Scores file.

Preferred citation: Musical scores relating to dramatic works by Dailey Paskman, Music Division, The New York Public Library

Related Materials:

Paskman, Dailey. Papers, sound recordings, and musical scores relating to dramatic works by Dailey Paskman

Creator History

Dailey Paskman was a playwright and lyricist of the forties, associated with Rudolf Friml.

Scope and Content Note

Vocal score for Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, written for a children's phonograph record; full score, 3 vocal scores and other material for Halloween, a radio production for children. All the music is by Lionel Barrymore.

Barrymore. The collection also includes 2 glossy portrait photographs of Barrymore. Scores are cataloged separately in the Scores file.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Musical scores

Photoprints

Portraits

Names

Paskman, Dailey

Barrymore, Lionel, 1878-1954

American Music Collection