

The New York Public Library
Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,
Manuscripts, Archives and Rare Books Division

Guide to the

C.P.T. White papers

1912-1927

Sc MG 189

Home to Harlem Project funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Summary

Creator: White, C. P. T.

Title: C.P.T. White papers

Date: 1912-1927

Size: 0.02 linear feet (2 folders)

Source: Provenance unknown, 07/--/78

Revision History: This finding aid was updated by Allison Hughes.

Abstract: C.P.T. White was the financial agent for the Friendship N.&I. College in Rock Hill, South Carolina, a religious institution operated under the auspices of the Baptists of York and Chester Counties which educated African American men and women. White was also involved in other Baptist Church affairs. The C.P.T. White papers include information about Baptist church activities, including a notebook of minutes of the 26th annual Sandy River Baptist Sunday School convention held in 1912. There is a handwritten account taken from the first issue of the first minutes of Gethsemane Baptist Church held at the Gethsemane Baptist Church in Chester, South Carolina in 1867. In addition, the collection includes a program from the Women's Baptist Missionary and Education Convention which met in 1921, and an appeal for funds from White for Friendship N.&I. College in Rock Hill, S.C. Also included are a poem written by White, a card with his photograph, and a copy of an open letter from Carter G. Woodson in the Journal of Negro History, 1927, with related cover letter.

Preferred citation: [Item], C.P.T. White papers, Sc MG 189, Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, Manuscripts, Archives and Rare Books Division, The New York Public Library

Language of the Material: English

Creator History

C.P.T. White was the financial agent for the Friendship N.&I. College in Rock Hill, South Carolina, a religious institution operated under the auspices of the Baptists of York and Chester Counties which educated African American men and women. White was also involved in other Baptist Church affairs.

Scope and Content Note

The C.P.T. White papers include information about Baptist church activities, including a notebook of minutes of the 26th annual Sandy River Baptist Sunday School convention held in 1912. There is a handwritten account taken from the first issue of the first minutes of Gethsemane Baptist Church held at the Gethsemane Baptist Church in Chester, South Carolina in 1867. In addition, the collection includes a program from the Women's Baptist Missionary and Education Convention which met in 1921, and an appeal for funds from White for Friendship N.&I. College in Rock Hill, S.C. Also included are a poem written by White, a card with his photograph, and a copy of an open letter from Carter G. Woodson in the Journal of Negro History, 1927, with related cover letter.

Key Terms

Subjects

African American Baptists
Baptist associations -- United States
Baptist universities and colleges
Baptist women
Baptists -- South Carolina

Names

White, C. P. T.
Friendship N.&I. College (Rock Hill, S.C.)
Gethsemane Baptist Church (Chester, S.C.)
Sandy River Baptist Sunday School Convention Fort Mill, S.C.)