

The New York Public Library
Billy Rose Theatre Division

Guide to the

George Heister papers

1838-1892

*T-Mss 2001-068

Summary

Creator: Heister, George

Title: George Heister papers

Date: 1838-1892

Size: (1 portfolio)

Source: papers: Gift, Reinold, Millicent

Abstract: George Heister was involved in the theater in America throughout much of the 19 century, and worked with many of its prominent figures. Consists of six letters written to George Heister by several professionals of the theatrical world, including producer/playwright Augustin Daly, playwright Charles Fechter, E. F. Keach of the Boston Museum, and actor Junius Brutus Booth, Jr. Also includes an invitation to the American Dramatic Fund Association dated 1866, and an expression of appreciation from the Providence Theatre Building Committee dated 1838.

Preferred citation: George Heister papers, Billy Rose Theatre Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

George Heister was involved in the theater in America throughout much of the 19 century, and worked with many of its prominent figures.

Scope and Content Note

Consists of six letters written to George Heister by several professionals of the theatrical world, including producer/playwright Augustin Daly, playwright Charles Fechter, E. F. Keach of the Boston Museum, and actor Junius Brutus Booth, Jr. Also includes an invitation to the American Dramatic Fund Association dated 1866, and an expression of appreciation from the Providence Theatre Building Committee dated 1838.

Key Terms

Genre/Physical Characteristic

Correspondence

Subjects

Theater -- Production and direction -- United States

Names

Heister, George

Booth, Junius Brutus, 1821-1883

Daly, Augustin, 1838-1899

Fechter, Charles, 1834-1879

Keach, Edward F., 1824-1863

Boston Museum (1847-1903)